---

Announcer: At the careers office

Emily: Good morning!

Careers officer: Good morning. When do you have your appointment?

Emily: At half past ten.

Careers officer: I see. What's your name?

Emily: Michaels, Emily Michaels.

Careers officer: Hm. Where do you live?

Emily: I live in East London.

Careers officer: What do you want to be?

Emily: I don't know, but I think I want to have a job in which I can use my hands.

Careers officer: Hm. Where do you want to work?

Emily: There's one thing I know for sure, I don't want to work in an office, I want to work in a workshop.

Careers officer: What are you interested in?

Emily: Well, I'm interested in many things, but I really like working with wood.

Careers officer: What do you do in your free time?

Emily: I enjoy football, and I often help my uncle in his workshop. He's a joiner.

Careers officer: What are your favourite subjects at school?

Emily: My favourite subjects are the technical subjects like technical drawing.

Careers officer: Perhaps you'd like to be a carpenter or a joiner?

Emily: That sounds interesting. Where do I get more information about these jobs?

Careers officer: You can find a lot of information on the internet, and here's a small brochure about jobs in the wood industry for you.

Emily: Thank you. When is our next meeting?

Careers officer: In two weeks. I look forward to seeing you.

Emily: Thank you. Goodbye.

Careers officer: Goodbye.
