

Basis: The Sahara – the largest dry desert in the world

1. Answer the questions.

Circle the letters. When you have finished, colour the pieces of the puzzle below with the correct letters. What do you see at the picture?

1. The Sahara is a ...

T ... dry desert.

E ... wet desert.

2. The sun can shine without interruption, because ...

Y ... there is no night in the desert.

R ... there are no clouds.

3. Rocks break into pieces in the desert, because ...

G ... it is so dry.

O ... of big changes in temperature.

4. The wind blows fine sand out of the stony desert. This creates ...

F ... a marble desert.

A ... a sand desert.

5. The temperature can rise up to ...

B ... 70 degrees celsius

M ... 100 degrees celsius

6. Water points in the desert are called ...

H ... nomads.

U ... oases.

7. The nomads of the Sahara are called...

X ... Tamareg.

N ... Tuareg.

8. The animals used by the nomads for riding and carrying things are...

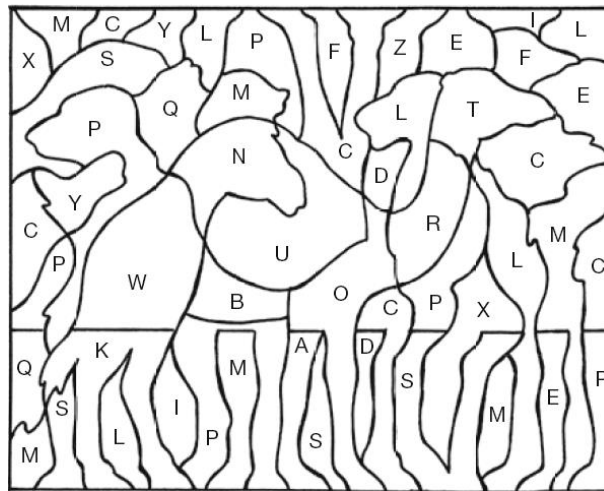

W ... dromedaries.

S ... turtles.

9. Nomads make their tents out of...

Q ... bamboo leaves.

K ... goat skins.

2. Solve the picture puzzle.

e = m

Cross out letter 3

+

Cross out letter 1

t = d

=

ANSWER

Vocabulary

bamboo	Bambus
big changes	große Veränderungen, Unterschiede
clouds	Wolken
desert	Wüste
dry	trocken
goat	Ziege
interruption	Unterbrechung, Hindernis
leaf	Blatt (einer Pflanze)
skin	Haut
stony	steinig
tent	Zelt
to break	brechen, zerbrechen
to create	erschaffen, bilden
turtle	Schildkröte

