

Tracks 40–44 – Unit 11/6, 7

Announcer: Shannon

Shannon: Hi, I'm Shannon. I live in Detroit. That's in the USA, in the State of Michigan. Almost 720,000 people live in this city. I love it here. I'm crazy about sports. We have a great hockey team, the Detroit Red Wings. My favourite game is baseball. Everybody likes baseball here. Our team is called the Detroit Tigers. I go to every game.

Announcer: Alicia

Alicia: Hi, I'm Alicia. I'm fifteen years old. I live in Leicester, in England. The city has a population of 330,000 and lies on the River Soar and at the edge of the National Forest. I'm always in the forest when I have free time. My hobby is taking pictures in the forest. I want to be a nature photographer one day.

Announcer: Zach

Zach: Hi, I'm Zach. I'm from New Zealand. My dad is next to me on this picture. We're at the beach. We live near Auckland. That's the largest city in New Zealand, but the capital of New Zealand is Wellington. About 4.5 million people live in New Zealand and there are beaches everywhere.

Announcer: Joanna

Joanna: Hi there. I'm Joanna. I'm from South Africa. South Africa is located at the southern tip of Africa. We have over 1,700 miles of beaches here. That's amazing. Over 50 million people live in South Africa. I'm very lucky because I can go to a private school. My dad has a good job, but many people here are very poor because they don't have a job.

Announcer: Aarav

Aarav: Hello, I'm Aarav. I live in New Delhi, in India. New Delhi is the capital of India and over 20 million people live here. That's right, over 20 million people live in this city. It's my dream to become a computer programmer. I spend most of my free time on the computer, but I don't play games. I like to program games and mobile apps.
