

Travelling the world

1 Finding a place to go

Go to the following website and choose a place which you would like to visit. Write down interesting aspects of this place.

- Where is it?
- How can you get there?
- Where can you stay?
- Which sites can you visit?
- How can you get around?

2 Complaining about a trip

You have been on a holiday trip to the place you have studied above. Unfortunately a lot of things went wrong.

You have decided to complain. In your polite e-mail of complaint you should

- describe the place itself,
- discuss the hotel accommodation,
- comment on the food.

Write around 150 words.

3 My birthday trip

a) You got a three-day trip to a theme park in the UK for your birthday. Go to the site below and choose one of the theme parks. The person who gave you this birthday present wants you to select the activities yourself.

 <https://www.themeparks-uk.com>

Do the following tasks:

- Select activities for three days and find reasons why you would like to do them.
- Choose two activities which you would not like to do and explain why.
- Choose two alternative activities just in case something goes wrong and you cannot do your favourite ones.
- Write a list of these activities.

b) Write a short thank-you letter to the person who gave you the present and explain what you did and how it was. Use the words and phrases from Prime Time 5 (Unit 3, p. 32 ff.).
Start like this:

Dear _____,

I just want to write to you to tell you about the trip which ...
