

4a: Intro – Mario at the RhymeTown Street Festival – text

Street festival noise

Mario: Hi Rhymetimers. It's me Mario.

It's Saturday in RhymeTown and as often on Saturdays, there's a street festival with a lot of things to see and do and a lot of people. A lot of friends.

Patricia: Yoohoo!

Mario: Hi Patricia!

For example, Patricia the Punk. She does a lot of things every day of the week from Monday to Sunday, and she's always punctual. She's a punctual punk.

Patrick: Hey hey!

Mario: Hi Patrick!

Her Uncle Patrick does nothing every day of the week, and he's never punctual.

Sis & Bro: Yoohoo!

Mario: Hey, there's Sis and Bro. They're not friends. They're sister and brother. Sis and Bro. They're here now, but on weekends they're usually at home with their friends. What do they do?
Listen to their Weekend Song.

It says what we always sometimes never do!

Mario: Reggie.

Reggie: Yes Mario?

Mario: Is the present simple a simple thing?

Reggie: Yes, it's I/you/we/you/they sing.

Mario: I/you/we/you/they sing.

Reggie: Mhm.
I/you/we/you/they sing.

Mario: Yes.
But what about the he/she/it present simple?

Reggie: This is the he/she/it present simple sound:
S! S!
He/she/it sings – S! He/she/it sings – S!

Mario: He/she/it sings – S!

Reggie: Yeah

Mario: He/she/it sings – S!

4j: Patricia's punctual day – times of day – text

Mario: Patricia's a punctual punk girl in her punctual punk world.
She says pop music is boring.
She listens to her favourite punk songs in bed in the morning.
Then she gets up and has breakfast.
She goes to school by scooter.
And then at home again after school
She thinks a sandwich is fine at lunchtime.
Then she does her homework
And hangs out with her rat and her friends.
The fun ends much too soon
In Patricia Punk's punctual afternoon.
After a bit of video streaming
She has dinner with her family in the evening.
Patricia's a very nice person like you and me.
She reads books and watches TV.
She wakes up she feels alright.
She's in bed at ten at night.

4n: Patrick Unpuckle's Weekday blues – usually always never – song

Mario: Patricia, the punctual punk, has got an uncle.
 His name is Patrick.
 He is not a punk, he doesn't like punk music.
 He likes sad music.
 He likes the blues and he's never punctual.
 So Patricia calls him Patrick Unpuckle.
 Listen to him and his Weekday Blues.

Patrick: The week starts with a workday not a fun day
 So my blues start on Monday
 The next day is also a blues day
 The day after Monday is Tuesday
 Seven days a week, I never win I always lose
 Yeah, I've got the Weekday Blues

The middle of the week can be a friends day
 I meet them after Tuesday on Wednesday
 Day number 4 is usually good for a birthday
 After Wednesday you have Thursday
 Seven days a week I never win I always lose
 Yeah, I've got the Weekday Blues

Come on, guitar now – I like it!
 Listen.

Many people say the next day is my day
 The day after Thursday is a Friday
 The next day is free, it's the work-doesn't-matter day
 After Friday there is Saturday
 Seven days a week I never win I always lose
 Yeah, I've got the Weekday Blues

The day after Saturday's the day before Monday

It can be cold but we call it Sunday
And Monday after Sunday that is when
My Weekday Blues start again
Seven days a week I never win I always lose
Yeah, I've got the Weekday Blues
