

Unit 9: People and places

1 Listening

Experiences with new homes

Listen to the recording from exercise 11, page 111 again. You are going to listen to Stephen and Vesna talking about their experiences with new homes. While listening, answer the questions below.

- 1 What do we know about the building Stephen is talking about (location, kind of building, condition, ...)?
- 2 What needed to be done at Stephen's grandfather's house?
- 3 How did Stephen feel about helping to refurbish it?
- 4 How did Vesna feel about her new home?
- 5 What helped change her feelings about her new home?
- 6 In what way did this experience abroad change her?

2 Writing

Experience abroad

Your school is doing a series of articles on young people's attitudes to living abroad. The best articles will be published on the school's website and the author will win an action camera. In your article you should:

- give examples of different types of experiences abroad and say what kind of experience you would like to make
- describe an experience you or someone you know had during a stay abroad
- give your view on living abroad and explain what you could learn from such an experience and explain what the challenges of moving to a new country could be (pros and cons)

Write 200–250 words. Give your article a title.

3 Reading

Two small countries

a Read the text you have not read before in class. This means that you either read the text about Monaco on page 108 or the text about Malta on page 139. Find the answers to these questions and highlight the relevant passages in the text.

- 1 Where is it? How big is it?
- 2 What languages do people use?
- 3 How many people live there?
- 4 Does it get many visitors?
- 5 How does it make money?
- 6 What kinds of jobs does it offer?

b Write down two more interesting facts about the country.

c Do you know other small countries? Which one(s)?
