b) Kelly and Martin manage the coffee shop Remy has applied to. Read the dialogue and the speech bubbles. Complete the dialogue using indirect speech.

Kelly: Did you see the video CV of the barista applicant, Remy Anderson?
 Martin: No, I haven't. You said a video CV? Sounds interesting.
 Kelly: Yes, it is! In his video, Remy mentioned he _____ 1 work experience in a flower shop and _____ 2 all kinds of online tutorials.
 Martin: That's impressive – hands-on and tech-savvy!
 Kelly: Oh, yes. He said he _____ 3 still in high school, had good grades and _____ 4 communication science or IT at university.
 Martin: Interesting. How did he describe his personality?
 Kelly: He told us that if _____ 5 for someone friendly and hard-working, we should hire him. In fact, he literally told us _____ 6 any further.
 Martin: Quite self-confident! And he seems to have a good sense of humour. So, do you think we should give Remy a chance?
 Kelly: I definitely think so. He mentioned that he _____ 7 available over the summer. So I think we should call him and invite him to come in for an interview.

I've gained some work experience in a flower shop and gave online tutorials of all kinds.

I'm still in high school and would like to study communication science at uni.

I will be available in July and August.

If you are looking for a friendly, passionate and hardworking barista, look no further.
