Brendan: Hello, my name is Brendan O'Brian, I come from _____. Where can I find your teacher? He promised to _____!

Karen: Well yes, _____ to our school. I'm sorry, Mr Winter, my teacher, is busy with some students, but I'm sure, he will have time in a few minutes. Did you have a nice flight to _____?

Brendan: Yes, thank you, the _____ was fine, and there was no flight turbulence.

Karen: Is it your first time in Austria?

Brendan: No, I have been here many times before, but it's the first time, I'm visiting your school.

Karen: And ... Do you like our _____ and the people here?

Brendan: Oh yes, I like Austria and its _____ are always friendly and helpful. And your _____ is excellent!

Karen: Are you interested in _____?

Brendan: I know, why you're asking? Your country gave the _____ team a hard time. So are you a football fan as well?

Karen: I think that's because of my two brothers. There's no chance to escape. Would you like me to give you some _____ about our _____ until Mr Winter comes?

Brendan: That would be _____, thank you!

Karen: Ok, let's start right here: In these boxes we store our hand tools. We always have to clean them properly, before we put them back. On the right side, we have some workbenches. To the left of this room, we store our machine tools. There is a large _____ behind the workshop, where we keep all the materials we need for our practical work. Ah, Mr Winter is coming, now.

Brendan: Thank you very much for your explanation. It was very nice _____ to you!
