

Unit 35 – Up on the roof

Task 05 – Listening 4a55yg – Additional task

Choose the correct answers (more than one can be correct).

1. The roof of a building should
 - a) look good.
 - b) protect it from rain.
 - c) influence the weather.
 - d) be made of wood.

2. If a roof is well-insulated,
 - a) you need less energy for heating.
 - b) you need more energy for heating.
 - c) it protects the house better from rain.
 - d) you can better walk on it.

3. A roof should be strong enough to
 - a) carry the tiles.
 - b) carry a lot of snow.
 - c) withstand hurricanes and storms.
 - d) carry ten people walking on it.

4. The ridge beam is the part
 - a) where the mineral wool is inserted.
 - b) where the roof battens are nailed into.
 - c) where the plastic foil underlay is spread.
 - d) where the rafters meet.

5. The angle of the slope at which the rafters are set up depends on
 - a) the outer walls.
 - b) how much space you want to have under the roof.
 - c) building regulations.
 - d) the insulation.

6. Mr Taylor is from
 - a) New York.
 - b) New Zealand.
 - c) New Orleans.
 - d) New England.

Solution: 1. a), b); 2. a), b); 3. a), b); 4. c); 5. b), c); 6. c)