

Unit 20 – Drawing and scales

Task 06. Fill in the missing words from the box.

switch – single-wing windows – narrow end – parallel – door opening – socket – partition wall – shower tray – rectangle – bathtub – single door – wall-mounted toilet – double wash-basin unit

The bathroom is in the shape of a _____. The long side measures five metres the other one is three metres in length. Please draw the long side of the rectangle at the bottom of the sketch.

The bathroom is entered in the lower right corner of the room-plan through a _____, opening inwards to the right. The _____ measures 80cms by 200cms. Two metres to the left of the door frame there is a _____, which is 1.5 metres in length and is positioned at right angles to the wall with the door. On the left side of this partition wall, there is a _____ placed in the middle of the wall. On the right side of the partition wall, there is a shower. The _____ measures one metre by one metre.

In the upper left corner of the room-plan, there is a _____ positioned _____ to the wall through which we entered the room. It is 1.8 metres in length overall and 80cms in width. Opposite the door, a _____ is mounted.

This unit is 180cms by 50cms. There are two _____ in the room: The first one is positioned exactly between the bathtub and the double wash-basin unit. The second one is next to the _____ of the bathtub. They are both 80cms wide and 150cms high.

Now, let's talk about electrical installations: There is a double-_____ in the middle of the double wash-basin unit on the wall. Next to the door, there is a _____ to turn on the four wall lights – one positioned above the toilet, one above the centre of the bathtub and two just above each sink.

Additional Word bank

long side Längsseite

measure messen

length Länge

inwards nach innen

width Breite

mount befestigen, einbauen

wide breit